The logo

The wordmark is a two-part lockup. “The” is set in Playfair Display Italic at roughly three quarters the size of the capitals, separated by a single word space. “TEXTILE BUFFET” is set in Montserrat Medium, all caps, with minimal letterspacing. The two share a baseline and are always used together on one line.

PLAYFAIR DISPLAY ITALIC

The

Used for the article in the logo and for the tagline.

MONTSERRAT MEDIUM

TEXTILE BUFFET

Used for the wordmark only, always in capitals.

The tagline

Playfair Display Italic, sentence case, set at roughly half the size of the capitals so that the line spans the width of “TEXTILE BUFFET”. It sits directly beneath the wordmark — a tight gap, no more than a few points — centred on the capitals rather than on the whole lockup, so “The” overhangs to the left. The tagline is optional: it accompanies the wordmark where there is room to set it legibly, and is left off in small or tight applications, where the wordmark stands alone.
